

LUNCH AND LEARN SERIES!

Please RSVP by September 23, 2009:

Sarah Skeel, LCSW

258-7575 or sarah.skeel@uhsinc.com

PRESENTATION:

“Attention Deficits: Treating functional impairments and enhancing growth opportunities in children and adolescents”

PRESENTER:

Rebecca Shaw, PhD.,
LPC, NCC

Clinical Director

North Star Behavioral Health

Debarr RPTC

Objectives:

1. Identify core diagnostic criteria and secondary functional impairments related to attention deficits
2. Identify treatment strategies to effectively address functional impairments related to attention deficits
3. Develop effective treatment planning to enhance growth in those who experience attention deficits

Date: September 24, 2009

Time: 11:30am is Lunch/Networking

Noon-1pm is the Training

Place: North Star Behavioral Health

2530 Debarr Road

Anchorage, AK

Lunch provided!

1 Free
CEUs/CMEs

North Star Behavioral Health designates this educational activity for a maximum of 1 hours in Category 1 Credit towards the AMA Physician's Recognition Award. Each physician should claim only the hour (or portion thereof) that was actually spent in the educational activity. North Star is accredited by the Alaska State Medical Association to sponsor continuing medical education for physicians.