

Partnering together to present:
A Lunch and Learn Seminar
January 24, 2012

Presentation:

“The Use of Outdoor and Wilderness
Components in the Therapeutic Process”

Presenter:

Ron Meier, LPA
Clinical Director
North Star Palmer RTC

This activity is designed to change physician and clinical competencies , practice performance, and improve patient outcomes through the following objectives:

1. Understanding the tenets of adventure-based treatment
2. Teaching practical skills and emotional flexibility while engaging youth in outdoor activities
3. Creating isomorphic connections in long-term treatment

Facility Tours available
upon request at conclusion of seminar.

Date: Tuesday, January 24, 2012
Time: 11:30 a.m. Lunch/Networking
12:00-1:00 p.m. Seminar

Location: North Star Behavioral Health
2530 DeBarr Road
Anchorage, AK 99508

Lunch provided and sponsored by the AMHTA!

Please RSVP by January 20, 2012 to Denise Gleason, Executive Assistant
denise.gleason@uhsinc.com
Or call: 907-258-7575

Attend In-Person or via Teleconference

Join us for this event and receive
1 Free
CEU/CME!

North Star Behavioral Health designates this educational activity for a maximum of 1 hour in Category 1 Credit towards the AMA Physicians Recognition Award. Each participant should claim only the hour (or portion thereof) that was actually spent in the educational activity. North Star Behavioral Health is accredited by the Alaska State Medical Association to sponsor continuing medical education for physicians, clinicians, therapists, and any other licensed providers requiring continuing education for licensures.